The wishing well 'Go Fish' game

Help the fish caretakers of the wishing well clean up and win!

Jun
2013

The caretaker goldfish of the wishing well must have one of the worst jobs out there. What with all the stress of dealing with incoming requests for wishes and also having to keep the well sparkly clean. It's a tough life. Why not give them a break? Play this classic fishing game and clean up their well at the same time. Fun for all!

Making instructions

What you need

- Colour print out of page 2, 3 and 4 of this pdf (note pages 3 and 4 should work out as a double sided print, but you can always print separately and glue together)
- 12 paper clips
- Scissors
- 2 magnets, string, glue, popsicle stick for fishing rods

Instructions

1. Print (to make a big pond, print in A3 size) and cut out coins and bottle caps. Attach paperclips.
2. Make fishing rods by glueing some string to a magnet. Tie or glue the other end of the string to the popsicle stick. Repeat for the second one.

Game Instructions for 2 or more players

Aim of game

The person with the most collected points, wins

To set up the game, place all coins and bottle caps face up so you can't see the points hidden behind. Youngest player starts and move in a clockwise direction. Players need to fish out a coin or bottle cap from the wishing well using the fishing rod. Once all items are collected, the player with the most points wins.

Game Instructions for one

Randomly fish as many as you can in 1 minute. Add up your points and try again.
